

Apostoli Magyar Királyság

The foundation of the bank

The Apostolic Kingdom of Hungary

(1)

The St. Korona Hungarian and National Development Bank Innovation and Capital Association shall be founded with effect of today.

Common stock: 20,000 billion St Korona (Stk)

Our new international currency, the St Korona /Stk, shall be issued as of today.
1.00 Stk=1.00USD= 200.00 HUF – on fixed rates of exchange

Reserves:

- The national property regained by the Tempo party in the course of the legal accountabilities (fertile soil, sweet water supplies, mineral resources, real estates and assets, and parts of businesses and state-owned innovation results, as well as all inventions and patents offered to the Apostolic Kingdom of Hungary by private persons)
- All inventions and patents in the care of the TEMPO party and belonging to the sphere of interests of József Borbély, the Governor of the Apostolic Kingdom of Hungary.

(2)

From 18 April, 2011, the St Korona Hungarian and National Development Bank Innovation and Capital Association shall take over, all proven debts of all Hungarian citizens towards the banks, service providers and private persons. Furthermore, it shall pay all, proven debts of the third Republic of Hungary towards the international financial world after the financial reconciliations and any conclusions of the disputes.

Kecskemét, Hungary 16 April, 2011

József Borbély
The Governor of the The Apostolic Kingdom of Hungary
(True copy of the signed original)

